IP Addresses & Cookies

In order for us to provide an attractive and easy-to-navigate website, we must occasionally use our visitors' IP addresses for purposes such as optimising our use of search engines or diagnosing problems with our server. Furthermore, to better tailor our website and product offerings to our customers, we use Google Analytics to collect information on how visitors navigate our website. Cookies are used to collect aggregated data that allows us to see the origins of web traffic, amount of visitors, visitors' operating systems, browser types, etc. This data does not personally identify you in any way. You can choose not to accept cookies by disabling them in the settings of your web browser.

Bookings & Payments

When you book a tour on our website, we require contact information, such as your name and email address and, in some cases, partial or full postal address or telephone number. This information is only used to contact you with information about your tour. In rare cases, we may need to share your contact information with tour guides who are responsible for the booked tour. Otherwise, we do not sell or share this information with any third parties.

At the time of booking, we also ask you for payment information such as credit card number or bank transfer details. We use the utmost level of online security to safeguard your personal data.

Online Security

Our website is protected by the utmost level of online security, meaning your personal data is safe with us. All transactions on the site are secured by COMODO and any data we gather from users is securely stored and safeguarded by the best firewalls available.

All Rights Reserved

Deja-vu Tours Treks and Travel reserves the right to amend this privacy policy at any time.
